THREE GRAND COUNTY STUDENTS RECEIVE COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS FROM COLORADO HEADWATERS LAND TRUST

Colorado Headwaters Land Trust (CHLT) announces three recipients of this year's Carolyn Hackman Education Fund Scholarship.

Granby, CO – On Wednesday, May 29, Colorado Headwaters Land Trust (CHLT) presented college scholarships totaling $2000 to three seniors at Middle Park High School. These students were recipients of the 2019 Carolyn Hackman Education Fund scholarship. All three scholarship recipients have significant hands-on experience in the outdoors, including field work with public lands agencies, family ranching, and a dedication to snow sports and education.

This funding is available due to a donor's request to create the Carolyn Hackman Education Fund for students of Grand County. Carolyn Hackman wished to provide financial assistance to students who are looking to increase their knowledge of land conservation and management, and who wish to carry such knowledge and appreciation into their adult years.

"We hope these scholarships help these young adults continue pursuing their interest and passion for land conservation and land management in the West," said Jeremy D. Krones, CHLT Executive Director. "We hope they return to Grand County to help us continue to
